LEMUEL BORDEN, ATTORNEY AT LAW,

OFFICE, --Room No. 5, Burner Building, in or near which he can be found all day or nearly or quite every day. [May 5,-1y.

ROBT. E. STONEBURNER, EDINBURG, SHENANDOAH CO., VA. Will practice in the courts of Shenan-doub and adjuming counties. Special attention to Collection of Claims,

L. TRIPLETT, JR., ATTORNEY AT LAW, Commissioner in Chancery, MT. JACKSON.

JAMES C. BAKER, JR. BARTON & BOYD. Practice law in partnership in the countries of Shonandeah and Page. The personal attention of each member of the firm will be given to home-ness entrusted to thom-OFFICE IN COURT HOUSE Yard, Woodstock, Va.

May 7th Sa-ly, U. W. D. L. BORUM, Successor to Dandridge & Porum, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. practice in shenandcah and, adjoining counties.

200 Office in Court House square.

210, 8,54.-17 P. W. MAGNUDER

ALLEN & MAGRUDES, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VA. Come to my arms, you levely "quod,"

AS. H. WILLIAMS, WM. T. WILLIAMS, Trimmed round with "Nonpareil,"

WILLIAMS A BROTHER ATTORNEYS AT LAW WOODSTOCK, VA. tal attention stren to the collection of You did possess, and gave the " proof,"

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office formerly occupied by Allen and Willipractice is the course of Sherandosh and adjacent counties.

27 Special strention given to the collection of cistims and allegal business entrusted to his care Wilsh mar is Mr. Jacraco on Prilay and Saturday, before the Pad Tuesday of each month, at Dr. L. H. Jordan's Office.

Sept. 4th-4f.

WOODSTOCK, - VIRGINIA. On him I'd put a "head," Will practice in the courts of Shenandoah, the Circuit Court of the Eith Circuit and in the United States District and Circuit Courts at Harrisonburg.

To Grent Courts at Harrisonburg.

Orevice in Grabill building on same or with Harally.

This "rule" we'd rest upon: I'd be to you true manhood's "type,"

WALKER & KELLER, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,

WOODSTOCK, VINGINIA. Office on Court Street. One member of the firm will be in Mt. Jackson from 3 o'clock Thursday after-noon, until Saturday night of each week. Office over Irwin's Drug Store.

DR. T. F. LOCKE, SURGEON DENTIST. GFFICE: Main St., opp. the Court House,

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA. Artificial teeth inserted in any manner "The ballyon play with must be bounced; desired. Careful attention given to mising and extracting. Parents should bring their children and have their teeth examined, and procure information that will be of great value in after life.

All work guaranteed. Prices moderate.
July 10, '85.—1y.

"Greats you are renow'd."

"Lided Law and home runs to be

DR A. MARTIN. SURGEON DENTIST,

Respectfully informs the public that ne has resumed the practice of his pro-ession orders left at the store of P. J. Fravel, in Woodstock, will receive pro-Jan. 13th tf.

DR. B. F. MAPHIS & BRO. -Dentists ---

OFFICES: Woodstock and Haumsville, Virginia.
In Woodstock, 1st and 3d weeks of each month,
Is sammwritis 3d and 4th weeks.
These in need of first class limitatry at moderate groves, will do well its cult.
Full sets of Artificial tecth from $1.60 to $17.00. Full sets of Artificial teeth from $1.50 to $17.00, $25,00 and $56.00.

Fure gold Mings from $2.2 to $10.00. Silver Mings from $5. to $1.00.

Artificial teeth you up on solid gold, Gold and solid mind combination, cludedoid and foundation clude and Personal revoting, clasps, &c., special attantion gives to filling and preserving the market warranteeth, and correcting the pregularities.

All work warranted absolutely without pain by for the attantion of the class.

OLD DRUG STORE,

DEALERIN Drugs, Medicines. Glass, PAINTS, OILS

Varnishes. DYE STUFF. PERFUMERY, SOAPS, BRUSHES, Fancy-Goods,

Stationery, etc., etc. CANDY NUTS, FRUIT&C. As cheap as the cheapest. Purity and Reliability of geods always guarranteed. Frescriptionscar fully compounded at allhours.

May 21, '84 -ti,

R. W. BURKE, of VIRGINIA,

SMITH & SHACKMAN.

BALTIMORE, MD. Sole Manufacturers of the CELEBRATED HUNGARIAN Horse, Cattle and Chicken Powders. The best and safest powders made. Use he othes, go at once to your merchant and procure a package.

May 23, 24.—ly.ff.

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES,

NEW MARKET, VA.,

She Complied with his Request A Prize Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help to had courted so long that she away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The bread read to fortune opens hour. The bread read to fortune opens hour, the bread read to fortune opens hour, the bread read to first hours the workers, absolutely sure. At "For they say that 'mr in proposes."

Shenandoah

chap looks frozen.'

went out.

throwing himself on the ground.

Once down he whistled. Anoth-

. This is my brother,' he said, the wall.

brought them.

'Not that! I won't have it!'

Then they began to talk among

VOL. 65.

DEPARTURE.

The golden sun has left the sky

Of his departing smile And flash the glory to and fro,

And feel new joy the while

The memory is so fresh as yet,

Her summer day complete.

But all too soon the colors pale,

The hungry shadows creep Around her like a somber veil,

And vainly doth she weep

Nor feel her anguish deep.

As sunshine of our life departs,

Within our hearts the smile

Of loving words, that while,

So sweet the memories that rise

Of pleasures lately known.

Alas! too soon we wake to know

Whose winds are never still.

The Typo's Bride.

My charming little Nell;

And ruddy is your "face;

Returning from the "chase.

O, had I "space" to tell you all

In "agate" and in "pearl,"

Or "justify" you, dear. "Long Primer" it would take to do

You'd be to me as fair.

And you my " Paragon."

What is the similarity,

Because I court a miss.

She had a riddle, too;

Miss Ethel," asked the beau,

Between a game of ball and me ?"

In which a miss is caught, you see,

Indeed, I am, and home runs, too-

The Land of Dreams.

Retween the darkness and the day

A charmed pathway lies,

That leads to paradise-A way through sunlit meadows set

With primrose and with violet.

Bend low to every breeze,

Beyond the farthest seas.

Beyond the sunsot's golden bars,

There is the Land of Long Ago

The summer winds soft and low

And Love is lord of leafy ways

Through all the golden summer days.

Ah me! that happy land of dreams

The music of its woods and stream

Flame-sworded by the golden gate.

When mamma was a little girl

the never need to romp and run,

Nor shout and scream with noisy fun,

the always kept her hair in curl-

When mamma was a little girl

When mamma was a little girl

She never used to tumbe down,

When mamma was a little girk.

lat grandma says-it must be true-

"How fast the seasons o'er us whirl!

When she was grandma's little girl ""
-Grace F. Coolidge, in St. Nicholas.

The Little Missionary.

I have met her many mornings,

With her basket on her arm,

Coming not from her adornings.

But the modest light that lies

Deep within her shaded eves

As she journeys up and down.

Yet I know her steps are bent

On some task of good intent.

Maiden, though you do not ask 'it,

If they could appear as true.

And as good and sweet as you

And your modest eyes may wink, I will tell you what I think:

Queens might gladly bear your basket,

And she carries naught but blessing.

With her looks the ground caressi pg;

our mamma, dear, was just like you,

Nor break her doll, or tear her gown:

She learned to knit, " plain,"" soam " and

When Mamma was a Little Girl.

Still haunts the wandering wind,

And there, the woods an

Through valleys where the daffedils

Why all the boys allow-" O, I'm so glad," she smiled, " for you

Yawned Ethel; "I don't know."

I could not in a " column " write

The "measure" of your matchless wor

The "copy" to my heart I'd "press," For lack of other "matter."

Were you arrayed in costly "dress,"

Or stripped, just like a "galley" slave,

She Knew the Game.

The charms that, when a girl

Your " form " is beauteous to behold,

Your "color" glows just like to one

The unguessed midnight of a woe

That all is dark and chill;

We know we scarcely realize

That we are all alone,

And tender kiss or lingering charm

And leaves us lonely here. At first we feel so close and warm

So offtimes with our human heart,

When one we hold nost dear,

The parting seemed so sweet; She dreams not that her sun is set,

WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1885.

THE LITTLE SPY.

And twilight soft creeps on.
The last bright beam has flitted by, But still the heavens catch the glow not tell the age of such midgets. His mother was dead; his father, ter du Temple. Babies, mothers, nurses and old women-everybody knew that under that grim moustache, the terror of dogs and tramps, there lurked a goodhumored smile, and that to see it one had only to ask:

'How is your little boy !' Pere Stenne loved his boy so much. He was so happy when in the afternoon, after his school, the boy came for him, and together they made a tour of the square, to the occupants and reply to their While their While their While their while the say that the salutations.

With the terrible siege everything was changed. Pere Stenne's - Roston Transcript square was closed. It was placed under patrol, and the poor man, forced to keep up an unremitting watch, passed his days among deserted and ruined walls, alone, and without his pipe, only seeing his boy when he came home late at night. You should have seen his moustache when he spoke of the

As for little Stenne, he did not complain of the new order of things. A siege! It was an amusement to children. No more school! Vacation all the time, and the streets like a fair ground. The boy was evening. He followed the battalions of the quarter on their way to tend to pick up potatoes. their ramparts, choosing from preference those which had the best bands, and about that little Stenne | time. was well informed. He could have H. H.RIDDLEBERGER, ATTOREY AT LAW, And should a "Minlen" round you fawn, told you that the band of the Ninety-sixth wasn't worth much, but the band of the Fifty-fifth was excel. gun. lent. Sometimes he watched the Mobiles at their drill; what files under his arm, he stood with the er whistle answered him across the the shadows of the dark winter upon the ground. Before the wall, morning at the grating of the butcher or baker. There, standing with west factors and the standing with west factors and the standing data. The standing data with the standing data wi Why it's a match, of course," grinned he, polities, and, as the son of M. of the Prussian. Stenne, everybody asked his opinion. But even more amusing than pointing to his companion. "How smart," said Ethel, who announced all were the parties du bouchon, Stenne was not at the ramparts or the baker's, you might be sure to too much money. He contented himself with watching the players. the boys as they passed. -H. C. Dodge, in Detroit Free Press. One of them, a large boy in a blue coat, who never staked less than one hundred sous, excited his admiration. When he ran one could hear the coin clicking in the

> That makes you squint, eh! where you can find 'em.'

him into a corner, and proposed they gave them something to drink the floor. that he should go with him to sell and made them talk. All of the newspapers to the Prussians; there air, but the large boy amused them trembling. were thirty francs a trip to be made. At first Stenne refused very They laughed, and repeating the indignantly. He waited three days without going to see the players. Three terrible days! He neither ate nor slept. At night he saw of his bed, and pieces of one hundred sous each lay glittering all around him. The fourth day he returned to the Chateau d'Eau, saw the boys and pielded.

They set out one morning with sacks over their shoulders and the papers hidden under their blouses. When they reached the Porte de Flandres, day was just breaking. than see my boy doing this.' The large boy took Stenne by the hand, and approaching the sentinel-a good old fellow with a red to stop its beating.

To escape from this torment he nose and a kindly air-he said to him in a supplicatory voice: 'Let us began to drink. Presently everypass, bon monsieurs. Our mother thing whirled around him. He is sick and father is dead. We are heard vaguely, in the midst of loud going, my little brother and I, to laughter, his mocking the National pick up potatoes in the fields.' He Guard, their drills, a passage at began to cry. Stenne, filled with arms, a night-guard on the ramshame, hung his head. The sentiparts. Then the large boy lowernel looked at them a moment and ed his voice, the officers approach-

"Go on, quick,' he said to them the intended attack of the francsslipping aside, and they were on tireurs. Suddenly little Stenne their way to Anbervilliers. The spring up angry and sober. large boy laughed.

Confused as in a dream, little Stenne saw factories transformed kept on. When he had finished all into barracks, barricades with wet rags clinging to them, long chimnevs which pierced the fog and mounted toward heaven, empty and broken. From time to time said. they passed a sentinel or officers with their heads muffled up, who themselves in German very fast. looked out across the fields through The large boy strutted out large as their lorgnetts or little tents that a doge and clinking his money, were soaked in the snow that was Stenne followed him with his head melting before the dying fires .- hauging down. When they passed outposts. Presently, before they which said :

could escape them, they came upon 'Not goot! Not goot! a guard of france-tireurs. The Tears came into his eyes, france-tirears with their tents were | Once on the plain again the boys He was called Stenne-little Sten. encamped in a fosse by a stream began to run and returned rapidly. From the Brooklyn Union. ne. He was a child of Paris, thin of water along a railroad to Sois- Their sacks were full of potatoes years old, perhaps fifteen; one can his story in vain. They would not them. With these they passed unlet him pass. Then, while he cried, questioned the trenches of the there came out from the guard francs-tireurs. They were prepar-'They will let you go after their placing his men with such a confi-Pere Stenne and loved bim. They potatoes. But hold on, come in and dent air. When the boys passed warm yourselves a bit. The little he recognized them and smiled httle Stenne trembled. It was he wished to call :

from fear and shame. Inside they 'Don't go out; we have betrayed found some soldiers cowering you.'

around a small fire, a veritable | But the other said, ' If you speak to thaw our some biscuits which him still.

they had fastened on their bayo- At Conrneuve they entered a denets. They crowded together to serted house to divide their money. make room for the boys. They Truth obliges me to say that the crease ? asked the reporter. coming back radiant, 'to-night we ful.

Once past the trench there was he had come. He heard the word end to pick up potatoes.

*Don't let's go. Let's go back, ber to hide under his pillow the ber to hide under his pillow the let's go. Let's go back, ber to hide under his pillow the were made into cigarettes in New tions are given as adopted in the calling berself wife who stars the little Stenne kept saying all of the coins that weighed him down.

Never had Pere Stenne seemed The other shrugged his should so joyous and so happy as when he For the year ending October 1, Robert E. Lee, of the Confederate wife never stirred one drop of the ers and went on. Suddenly they came in that night. News had just 1884, 341,935,750 pounds of tobacbeen received from the provinces and affairs were going better. As he sat the old soldier looked at his coo were manufactured into cigare and in the life of his father, 1869 mix toddy for you Brother Small?

Mr. Small said: heard the click of the cocking of a been received from the provinces 'Lie down,' said the large boy, he sat the old soldier looked at his gan hanging on the wall, and said was 393,376,069. During the same ary war in the Southern Depart

· My boy, how you would go for long rows of people that formed snow. They advanced, crawling the Prussians if you were larger? Towards eight o'clock they heard

'It's at Aubervillers. They are made acquaintances and talked jumped into the ditch by the side lighting at Bourget, said the good tle Stenne grew pale, and pretendbed, but not to sleep. The cannon iers playing cards or making soup stealing?" asked the old man, ence, for they are sapping the life changing 'his fellow-citizens' to 'his was his wife allowed to testify.

Stenne the large boy said to him in ouac of the francs-tireurs! Beyond could not keep back a sob.

Little Stenne wanted to say its accusations. was not stupid, but something held and terrible face. When it was popular brands in the following notice of his intention of marriage of which a generous portion went is going to be fashinable again. him back. Before him, apart from finished he hid his face in his hands order: Sweet Caporal, Old Judge, placed on a bulletin board for to the daughter, Schneider came Let us hope so. the others, stood a Prussian, who and wept.

reproach, as if he had at home a money. "That is all ?" he asked. little boy of the same age as Stenne, and would say: 'I had rather die At that moment Stenne felt as it catridge-box and put the money in > it back to them." And without adding a word, without even turning his head, he the basis of a very bad habit.'

went down to join the Mobiles who were going out into the night. They never saw him again.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery. Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth,

then looked out over the road ed him and were grave. The wretched boy was telling them of But the other only aughed and single dose had the same happy of the officers were stirring about. Out of the camp with you! he | the scho

Free trial bottle of this standard remedy at B. Schmitt's drug store.

A minister having some of his The large boy knew the way and the Prussian whose look had so went across the fields to avoid the troubled him, he heard a sad voice, had in his package. "Dried he could have asked of the Lord tendent told the school to sing tongue," was the reply.

CIGARETTE SMOKING.

the amiable young man.

ing that he was tired he went to derful increase and decrease?" hand him over to immortality, meeting, and great good is being Stenne was so small that the thundered continually. He image effect on boys and young men as other. Frst in war, first in peace, that famous play of galoche which the Beton Mobiles had introduced during the siege. When little falling themselves into ambuscade. made of is so mild in taste that the lasts. The question is still manthe wall.

He remembered the sergeant who on the other side of the wall but smiled on him and saw him. See Report No. 33 smoke from them can be drawn on swered—'In what form will it last? CINCINNATI, November 4.—Sev- of the Department of Agriculture on On the other side of the wall were great embankments of earth, fallen trees and black holes in the lings or in haled, which in lying in the snow—and how many fallen trees and black holes in the lings or in haled, which in lying in the snow—and how many lying in the snow—and how d'Eau, where they played galoche. He didn't play, of course, that cost snow, and from each hole looked of that blood was hidden under out the same dirty cap and the same yellow moustache that laughed at yellow moustache that yellow mous M. Stenne, the son of a soldier. ferring the latter, which, in bun- military and personal friend of approve of the match, as he was kinds of vivacious girls. She of Tears stifled him. From the bed dles, cost only a half a cent apiece. Washington during and subsequent rich, and wished his daughter to mock vivacity laughs at everything In one corner was a gardener's by his side he heard his father walk house, casemated with trunks of to the war. It is grief at the death marry some one of social distinction no matter how trivial, and says: house, casemated with trunks of to the window and open it. Below trees. Below were a crowd of sold-in the dearest friend first took form the father endeavored to get his Oh, how funny you are! at every in the street the roll was sounding c garettes are made out of common in his own personal loss; and then, daughter home again, and at last remark she hears. She can swim, iers playing cards or making soup over a great fire. How good it and a battalion of Mobiles were material, and cheap things are all as a Virginian, in the loss his State he succeeded in estranging the and ride, and play lawn-tennis—all over a great life. How good it smelled, the cabbages and the lapicking up a piece which had rolled almost under the feet of little on: How different from the bive could not keep back a sob.

ways bad. Some people imagine had sustained. While in this frame young wife from her husband. She of which accomplishments, in the contract that gum opium is used it cigared that gum opium opium is used it cigared that gum opium opium is used it cigared that gum opium opium opium opium

Then all in a breath, little Stenne | Morrissey, the son of the ex-Conold that he had been among the gressman and prize fighter, was An American Marrying in Mexico. Prussians and what he had done killed by excessive cigarette smok- For an American to marry in young convict's heart, and he The genuinely vivacious girl is words after him, rolled with delight there. While he spoke he felt his ing, and the youth of the land are Mexico is a somewhat serious bost- came back to Cinciunati last sum- as sweet as a rose, and as restful, in the dirt of Paris which he had heart grow freer. It had stopped falling by the wayside day after ness. He must be three times mer completely broken in spirit. after the other sort passes, as a read him, or seemed to do so, for his eyes never quitted him. He looked at him with tenderness and without replying and picked up the a hand had been laid upon his heart his pocket.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, bave tried every remedy on the playing between Atlantic City and market for Stomach and Kidney N. Y., had been troubled with a Disorders, but got no relief, until I cough so that he was unable to used Electric Bitters. Took five sleep, and was induced to try Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consump.
think Electric Bitters the Best. tion. It not only gave him instant Blood Purifier in the world.'-Maj relief, but allayed the extreme A. B. Reed, of West Liberty, Ky., a woman is not the victim of descreens in his breast. His children used Electric Bitters for an old bility, languor, or dyspepsia. She carefully followed this advice papa's pants will soon fit brothsoreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a standing Kidney affection and says: has overcome these pests by using through life, and had reason to regression to reduce the standing Kidney affection and says: effect. Dr. King's New Discovery good as Electric Bitters. One of them opened the door to the is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board Schmitt.

ORIGIN OF A FAMOUS EXPRESSION.

second volume, in the last Dial, noticed his error in attributing to 'How many cigarettes will a per- Judge Marshall, instead of Colonel Sam Jones returned from Atlanta like thieves, often disappear at a ne. He was a child of Paris, thin and pale, who was perhaps ten bis store in van. They would not them. With these they passed up. a mile in length, if unburned? well-known sentence concerning tent where all the wives of Birmaked a Fulton street dealer in toWashington: 'First in war, first bacco of a reporter. When told in peace, and first in the hearts of ters had congregated to hear his the sacrifice, and to stay away house into the road an old sergeant, ing for the night attack. Troops that life was too short to figure out his contrymen.' The correct read sermon entitled 'to wives.' The from one upon the slightest grounds an old soldier, of the marine corps, had charge of a square in the Quarlike Pere Stenne. 'Hallo, there, themselves behind the walls. The tleman stroked his handsome must doubt. Marshall, in his 'Life of the 5th chapter of Gallatians. For temptation to go. Have the courbrats! Don't cry,' he said to boys. old sergeant was there, and was tache and said: 'This is an easy Washington' (Vol. V., p. 767), one sold hour he spoke eloquently age to speak your mind when it is puzzle. Thirteen cigarettes will prints the proceedings in the House of the duties, responsibilities and necessary that you should do so, make a yard, and as there are 1, of Representatives, and the resolu- opportunities of wives. The text and hold your tongue when it is 760 yards in a mile, it will take 22. tions read, on the death of Wash- gave full scope to his powers, and better you should be silent. pleasantly. Ah, how that smile 880 bits of bleached paper containington, in which the sentence first he elaborated with appropriate Have the courage to speak to a Alas, it was not from cold that hurt little Stenne. For a moment ing a little tobacco to measure out appeared. The last clause there illustrations all of its many feat poor friend in a seedy coat, even in the distance of one mile. To smok- reads, 'and first in the hearts of tures. In speaking of the love for the street, and when a rich one is ers who use twenty cigarettes a his fellow-citizens.' Colonel Lee, a dress he said: day it will take them 1,144 days to week later, used the sentence in There are mothers in this tent people take it to be, and the act is accomplish the task, at a cost of his oration before Congress, and right now who have spent more worthy of a king. Have the courwidow's fire, over which they tried out we shall be shot; and fear kept | $114.40. Now, you see how easily makes it end with 'countrymen' time preparing their daughters for age to admit that you have been in that problem is worked out,' said instead of 'fellow-citizens.' The one big ball than they ever spent the wrong, and you will remove 'Annals of Congress' (1799-1801, praying to God. Don't understand the fact in the minds of others, put-'Is cigarette smoking on the in- p. 204] reports the resolutions read me as preaching against fine and ting a desirable impression in the in the House, and ends the sen- appropriate dressing. I wish my place of an unfavorable one. Have 'I am sorry to say that it is, for tence with 'countrymen.' The wife could cook in silk, for it is the courage to adhere to the first While they drank, an officer came that when he heard the chink of a more peruicious passion does not 'Annals,' however, was not a con- much prattier than homespun. I've resolution when you cannot change to the door, called the sergeant, the coin under his blouse and exist than the love for tobacco rol- temporaneous publication, having got no patience with these little it for a better, and to abandon it at spoke to him in a low tone and thought of the games of galoche in led up in this shape. The cigarette been made up more than twenty muly-headed preachers who go the eleventh hour upon conviction. the future, little Stenne found that habit peans death and destruction years later, by Gales and Seaton, about the country preaching against Why, boys,' said the sergeant, his crime was somewhat less fright to those who become wedded to from such materials as they could ear bobs, bracelets, finger rings this fatal habit, but what are we find. Its wording of the resolu- and silks. These little fellows alshall have tobacco. They have got But when he was alone, the un- to do? A boy will come in and ask tions is so unlike that given by ways dress better than anybody Prussian countersign. I be- happy boy! When, after they were for a cigarette which cost him 1 Marshall and other contemporaries else, but they don't pay for their lieve this time we shall retake that through the gates, the large boy cent. We don't sell to all boys, that they must have been report fine rig. Somebody gives it to them. had left him, then his pockets be- but there are some whom we can ed from memory. 'Washingtoniaua', They are too stingy to buy it.' There was an explosion of bravos gan to grow heavy and the hand not refuse. A boy sent out of a published at Baltimore in 1800, is and laughter. They danced, they upon his heart was more weighty factory or shop by the workmen to a compilation, made up soon after he said: sang, they flourished their sabre- than before. People who passed buy tobacco for their noonday the death of Washington, of public bayonets, and, profiting by this him seemed to look upon him se- smoke will skip our store and pur- resolutions, testimonials of respect, tumult, the boys disappeared. verely, as if they knew from whence chase goods elsewhere if we refuse and orations. The resolutions read in my life as I did last night when be alone. They refuse to eat, and to sell him a lung-teaser for a cent. in the House there appear in prenothing before them but the plain. spy in the noise of the streets and Of course he has to be accommodated cisely the words quoted by Mar. dience in Atlanta at De Give's evacuations. They become in a and at the end of it a long, white the beating of the drams which ed, or else, through his influence, shall, except that the sentence Opera-House, on the prohibition few days wild or mad, and show a wall pierced with loop-holes. To were marching by the side of the we may lose the custom of twenty under consideration ends neither question. We pray to God that disposition to injure one if molestlike a fair ground. The boy was running out of doers all day until wards the wall they directed their canal. At last he reached home, men. Now as to the increase. In with fellow-citizens' nor country-prohibition will carry in Atlanta, ed. They frequently run off, and way, stopping at every step to pre- and, glad to find that his father was the month of September just pass- men,' but with 'country' [p. 110). and I verify believe it will. 'The it requires a strong inclosure to re-

York city alone, against 40,210,140 Senate, and the sentence again toddy for her husband. Thank pounds in the same month of 1884, ends with 'country.' General God, when I was a drankard my used in the same way the past year | Lee's 'Memoirs of the Revolutionperiods the tobacco turned into ment') quotes, on page 51, the sencigars was 606, 434,451 pounds for tence, and ends it as Marshall 1884 and 601,041,150 pounds for gave it, with 'fellow-citizens.' This ting on the stage at the big temthe year ending October 1, 1885, statement might be regarded as perance meeting and was the hap-It will thus be seen that while authoritative as to the reading, if piest woman I ever saw. She sent fresh pastures, on high and dry cigars have decreased 5,393,301 General Lee on the next page had her love to you, and said, Continue pounds cigarettes have increased not spoiled the inference by saying in the good work. I am praying pure water and abundance of it, during the year 51,410,490 pounds. But there is a line- a single line- tor you ever hour. 'What is the cause of this won- in the works of Lee which would 'Cigarette smoking has the same though he had never written an-

'What's the matter?' asked Pere drug costs $6 a pound, which would fellow-citizens' - which to him dissipated. One day he went to prowess, in spite of her odious Stenne, coming back. The child be too expensive to the cigarette meant Virginians. Having later his wife's home and demanded manners. She is always trying to them playing the plane or drinking champagne. When the Parisians threw himself out of the bed and champagne. When the Parisians threw himself out of the bed and manipulator. The white paper is been appointed by Congress to that she go with him. She refused say something witty; is addicted Well, if you want, I'll take you champagne. When the Parisians of the puning habits; talks of the puning habits; talks of They gave out their papers, then movement the coins rolled upon ration, and that is poisonous as an expression of the grief of the her. He was sent to the penitentary is so glad girls enough, Heaven knows. Cigarettes nation, he again used the sentence, there for three years. He was not nowadays have some spirit -as What's that? You have been ought to be stamped out of exist- and gave it a broader meaning by allowed to see his children, nor much as to say; You see before day. What brands have I got? married, twice in Spanish and once Just before his term expired the rainbow after a tearing rainstorm. a set of galoche placed at the foot something, too, to prove that he Pere Stenne listened with a stern Let us see. Here are the ten most in English, besides having a public father died, leaving a large fortune There are indications that her sort Cross Cut, Richmond. Straight Cut, twenty days before the ceremony. back among his people, and was "Father! father!" said the child. Vanity Fair, Sunny South, Opera This is the law. The public notice welcomed as a wronged man. A As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla The old man pushed him away.

The old man pushed him away.

Valify Fair, Sunny South, Opera This is the law. The pashe as a transport of the payfew days ago he arranged to see single bottle will prove its merits.

We can be gotten around by the payfew days ago he arranged to see single bottle will prove its merits.

Many thousands of people are first named are manufactured in residence of one month is neces er friend. The mother happened yearly saved from dangerous fevers the young man, and when his inatridge-box and put the money in its pocket.

"Tis well," he said. "I will give to back to them."

And without adding a word.

The young man, and when his inmarriage—the only marriage recognized by law since 1858—and the usual but not obligatory church service. The first two must take nead is level. Never smoke a nlare before a judge, and in the

There were a few words and tears and then reconciliation. They were married again, and now the usual but not obligatory church
service. The first two must take nead is level. Never smoke a nlare before a judge, and in the eigarette, for if you do you may lay place before a judge, and in the presence of at least four witnesses and the American consul. The civil marriage is the legal form of necessarily in Spanish. Most fond of relating that, on leaving an who has been reading South Ameriweddings are confirmed by a church service.

Interesting Experiences.

er of Columbus, Ga., tells his experience, thus: 'For three years

Sold at fifty cents a bottle by B.

Mr. D. L. Moody says about long the help he needed.

Hiram Cameron, Furniture Deal-

clear skin, bright eye, generous ex-pression, elastic step, hearty-hand to be laughed out of your money or shake and courteous welcome. Such a woman is not the victim of de-'Nothing has ever done me so much Brown's Iron Bitter, the world's joice that he did so; while thousgreat tonic Miss Mattie Benson, South Parsonfield, Me., says, 'After using Brown's Iron Bitters for weakness and lack of appetite and course. Never let your honest course weakness and lack of appetite and course. Never let your honest course. Some ministers only "stand high" energy, I felt like another person.' victions be laughed down! Be true

It is school again these days. himself sinking in the waves of riches I asked the Sunday School but have the approval of your own Rheumatism, neuralgia and Conscience. See to it that what catarrh, caused by impoverished before his petition, 'Lord save me,' in the bad class under the gallery, ever you lose, whether it be money, the regular prayer-meeting round- who only came in last Sunday, or place, or reputation, you do not parilla. about introduction, he would have stood up and said : 'Their scarcity.' lose courage, honesty or truthold sermons, was asked what he been forty feet under water before And in his confession the Superin-'Don't be weary, children.'

"MIXING TODDIES."

The Bad Habit Into Which Youth of The reviewer of Mr. McMaster's Sam Jones Speaks "to Wives" in Birmingham.

When he got to 'temperance'

In all my experience as a public preacher, I never felt so enthused

Mr. Jones continued: By the by, Brother Sam, I saw

The tent is still crowded at every liberal allowance of ground oats or accomplished.

at her father's command secured a is generally loud, slangy, and divorce. This almost broke the egotistical. New York, and the others in the sary.

Sary.

The three ceremonies are the bushand and wife was touching care in property discussions. Little Stenue made a sign that it south. Will you try one? asked was. The old man took down his the young man, and when his in contract of marriage, the civil There were a few words and tears system by the use of this remedy.

BE FIRM .- An English admiral, own steady exertions, used to be think of this weather !' Friend, humble lodging to join his ship as can news: 'Why, it is Chili.' 'I Boa midshipman his landlady pre- liva,' replied the first beginning to sented him with a Bible and a peruse his paper. guinea, saying: God bless and A woman with pleasant-smile, prosper you, my lad; and, as long to yourself, and in the end you will in the community when they are up

Mr. D. L. Moody says about long prayers: "If, when Peter found himself slnking in the waves of riches?" asked the Sunday School but have the approval of your own Rheumatise.

Henry Ward Beecher is in favor of high license and he wants it pro-

ADVERTISING RATES.

SHENANDOAH HERALD

Eighth 1 15.00
One square one year, 10.00
Local Notices per line over 100, 5c.
Legal ads. 2 squares (4 w.) 2.50
Additional squares (4 w.) 1.00
Sales not exceeding 3 sq. (4 w.) 3.00
Additional (4) 1.00 squares in legal notices and sales 14 in. each
All other squares 1 inch.
Professional eards, 1 sq. on year, 10.00
Namber of macritous must be markedon manufactipt or they will be charged until forbid.
No local notices inserted for less than 25c.

No local notices inserted for less than 25c MORAL COURAGE.

Have the courage to face a difficulty, lest it kick you harder than BIRMINGHAM, ALA., November 3. you bargained for. Difficulties, mgh; the effort is less than many

L. J. Hunten, University Station,

Orange county, N. C.: There is a disease among the cattle of our community that is raging to an alarming extent, and invariably proves fatal in from four to five days after the attack. The symptoms are a dull and sluggish appearance, with a seeming desire to I arose to address that vast au- purge with very dark and thin tain them. In the course of a week they die. Can you name the disease, and tell us a remedy ? Answer.-From your descrip tion of the symptoms, we conclude otherwise, bloody murrarn, or mad itch, prevailing quite extensively in the malarial section of the South this season. There is no remedy known to cure those cattle which your wife last night. She was sit- have been attacked; but healthy animals may be prevented from taking it by removing them to land, furnishing them none but and adding to the grass ration a corn together with wheat bran. They should, also, have access to salt at all times, and shade provid-

Good Cheer says there are two you a complete specimen of the out of our young men. Johnny countrymen.'-The Dial, October. He served his time, and his wife admirable creature I describe'; and never can stand prosperity.

who rose to his high station by his 'Ah, my friend, what do you

Doctor, I can neither lay nor set. What shall I do? 'I think you had better roost,' and yet it is said there is no liter-

Some ministers only "stand high"

Very rash-A boy with measles. portionately broad.

Prevention of Cattle Disease.